Caskapalooza

This cream ale is influenced by a man who hates birthdays; So much, in fact, that he almost caused an international incident over a birthday cake! Our friend Joe taught us that not everyone is born with People Skills so thankfully it now comes in a can. Everybody knows SOMEONE who could use a pint of people skills now and then; now you can buy them one.

Our session-able cream ale, is light, refreshing and, unlike Joe, tries to get along with everybody. This smooth, lightly hopped ale offers a beautiful mouth-feel and golden, crystal clear appearance. It's a real refreshing crowd pleaser. Patio-goers unite! It's time to hit your favorite patio and get to work on your People Skills

Cheers,

Your friends at Tool Shed & CRAFT
